ACCU’s Presentation

13-15 March 2006, Tokyo

ACCU Presentation-1
13 March, 2006

OHNUKI Misako
Director, Cultural Division
Asia-Pacific Cultural Centre for UNESCO (ACCU)

What’s ACCU?
- Non-profit organization
- Established in 1971
- Working for the promotion of mutual understanding and cultural cooperation among people in the region
- in line with the principles of UNESCO
- Implements programmes with UNESCO and its 48 Member States in Asia and the Pacific

ACCU’s Networking

Three Approaches to Safeguarding ICH
ACCU provides people in the region with forums and informational educational materials on culture to help them plan and implement these approaches.

What is ACCU doing to assist the Asian and Pacific countries?
- Human Resources Development
- Materials Development
- Information Exchange

Human Resource Development

ACCU’s Vision for the Near Future
To be presented on DAY 3