Some statistics and facts:

The population of Estonia today is 1.3 million.

70,000 people master actively or passively the Võro language.

10,000-13,000 Seto.

3,000-4,000 of them live in the territory of the Seto area.

The Seto area has been part of Estonia only since the beginning of the 20th century.

In 1945 Setomaa was cut into two, one part remained under the direct Russian administration.
The Seto choir Tsibihärbläse

Preparing the onion crop for storage

Pottery making

Making seto lace and Seto bands

The Seto Kingdom Day

Musical drama Taarka
The Võru Institute (http://www.wi.ee/)
• Coordinating the teaching of the Võro-Seto languages
• 33 teachers, 400 children
• Training for teachers
• Study trips
• Teaching materials
• Poetry contest
• Book of children’s narratives
• Quizzes and camps of traditional culture
• A Võro culture week

Newspapers:
• Uma Leht (http://www.umaleht.ee)
• Setomaa (http://www.estpak.ee/~setomaa/)

Children’s website: (www.lastekas.ee)
Children’s magazine Täheke

Thank You!