

Reflection

1 | Goals of this training

To get tips on how to run a classroom where each student feels comfortable.

- Learn a school management in Thailand and the concept of classroom management
- Communicate a lot with Thai people and Japanese participants
- Expand my perspective through cross-cultural exchange

2 | What I achieved

- Learned how teachers interact with other teachers and with students in Thai schools.
- Heard the views on education from Thai people and Japanese participants
- Understood the bias of my point of view through cross-cultural exchange.

3 | What I feel can be improved

- English proficiency when speaking to Thai teachers and students without interpreting.
- Basic knowledge about Thai education and culture.
- Ability to manage schedules

Action plan

1 | To Pupils/Students

- Training report on slides

Objective:

Letting students know that they can make a difference by being courageous and continuing to act.

- Exchanges with schools in Thailand

Method:

Exchange of letters or online interaction

Objective:

- Students realise that they have a place outside the classroom and school.
- Students re-evaluate their own perspectives and environment through cross-cultural exchange.

2 | To teachers

- Report by letter

- Sharing inclusive education in Thailand
- Sharing perspectives on how to interact with pupils/students.

- Sharing of photographic materials for teaching materials

3 | To myself

- Try to have more conversations with other teachers and staff
- Reflect on the characteristics of secondary school as public compulsory education, and face students with a view that they will live in society after graduation
- Try to learn more about the Thai language and Thai history
- Attempt to work in a way that allows enough time to be away from the workplace for a week.
